

Tamilore Awonusi

London, England

Tamiloreawonusi15@gmail.com

MISSION

As a result-driven and dynamic student with over 3 years of professional work experience spanning institutional investing, consulting, and public policy, I have a proven track record of adapting to and embracing new challenges in order to gain more experience.

EDUCATION Bachelor of Arts, Political Science – Trinity Western University

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Associate, Bank of Montreal (BMO) Capital Markets, London (UK) (May 2024 -)

With a desire to advance my career in finance, I joined BMO's Metals desk as an Associate, specializing in Metals Sales, Structuring, and Origination. In a market environment heavily influenced by macroeconomic factors, my role involves originating and structuring financing and hedging solutions for both base and precious metals producers and traders, with a specific focus on derivatives markets and OTC product.

Consultant, Temple Scott Associates, Toronto (January 2024 – April 2024)

After completing my degree, I joined Temple Scott as a Consultant, where my primary responsibility involved managing client portfolios in the realms of financial services and energy services. Notable clients include MasterCard, Citibank, Vanguard and, Neste. With an enhanced background in federal politics and financial services, my role encompassed crafting strategic initiatives to advocate for client interests. This involves conducting comprehensive legislative monitoring and offering insightful analyses on regulatory and policy developments.

Legislative Intern, Office of Hon. Judy Sgro, Ottawa (September 2023 – December 2023)

Within this Co-op role, I was responsible for overseeing engagement and relationship-building with key stakeholders within the scope of Hon. Judy Sgro's role as Chair of the Standing Committee on International Trade and the Canada Taiwan Parliamentary Friendship Group. In this capacity, I managed interactions with significant stakeholders associated with these areas of focus.

Senior Intern Analyst, Global Affairs at CPP Investments, Toronto (May 2023 – August 2023)

My responsibilities encompassed forging connections and nurturing relationships with diverse LPs and GPs during specific fund engagements, ranging from private equity to real assets and active equities. With an emphasis on geopolitics in this role, I diligently conducted thorough research and analysis on a wide array of political, policy, legislative, and regulatory developments, all contextualized from a business perspective for investment recommendations.

Professional Rugby Player, Irish Rugby, Dublin, Ireland (December 2021 - January 2023)

Contracted professional athlete representing the Ireland national team on the HSBC Sevens World Series.

HIGHLIGHTS OF ACCOMPLISHMENTS

Professional Rugby Player

In addition to my professional experiences, I have had the privilege of pursuing a career in professional rugby. I have played with esteemed teams such as the Ireland National team, Connacht Rugby, and Waikato Rugby. Notably, I became the first black Irishman to represent the Irish Rugby 7s team. Sports have always been integral to my character, demonstrating over 10 years of commitment to pursuing a childhood dream.

Published Writer

I launched www.tamiloreawonusi.com to showcase my writing, which gained recognition leading to publications in the Irish Times, Fac Magazine, Fortnight Magazine, and content curation for Bumble. My articles sparked dialogue, even reaching Ireland's parliament. Please feel free to browse my website to learn a little bit more.

ACTIVITIES AND SKILLS

Outside of work, school, and rugby, I keep myself busy with cooking, baking, photography, and volunteering with Oxfam to aid their responses to global crises. You can see more on my roommates' and my Instagram food page - Hottubtacos. Give us a follow if you're ever looking for great recipes.